

UPPINGHAM

Aims and Principles of Boarding at Uppingham

Uppingham seeks to care for its boarders in such a way that

- They feel safe, secure and valued.
- They are able to take full advantage of an holistic education.
- The culture of the boarding house promotes intellectual development and fosters high academic aspirations and outcomes.
- They value themselves and others, affirming and celebrating diversity and difference.
- They have the opportunity to lead, shape and influence the community.
- The environment in which they live is maintained and developed to the highest possible standard.
- Their families are part of the community and have strong connections to the School.
